

Diers Formetric Pedogait

With the Diers Formetric System, the surface of the back can be scanned and evaluated. In this way the posture is analyzed and documented. With the treadmill, the Pedogait can also be used to evaluate of the posture while walking. An analysis of the gait is also possible both with video as well as by means of a pressure plate integrated in the treadmill.

