

Firstbeat Team-System

The Team² System from Polar enables heart frequency measurements and analysis of multiple athletes at the same time. The unit contains a base station, a transmitting-charging device and up to 20 transmitters, which can be worn with a chest strap. The range of the transmitters is around 100m. There is a stationary (Ergometry Lab) and a mobile system in the Performance Lab.

