

Functional Movement Screen Test Kit

The Functional Movement Screen (FMS) is a qualitative functional motion analysis. The athlete completes 7 standardized exercises (deep squat, a hurdle step, in-line lunge, etc.) which can be evaluated by the investigator in respect to execution quality. On the basis of the results, the investigator accumulates information on stability, mobility and asymmetries of the athlete's execution.

