

LAVEG

The LAVEG is measuring distances and is calculating velocities via laser optics. With its high precision ($\pm 0,3\text{m/s}$) it is the gold standard of laser speed measurement. No need for reflectors. Simply target the object you want to measure. Often used in track & field for measuring speed profiles.

