

Seca 255

The Seca 255 is a mobile weighing and measuring system. For the standing measurement of the height and weight of adults and school children, a flat scale and a stadiometer can be connected with a special adapter element to form a single weighing and measuring station. The system is medically approved.

