

Microgate Witty GATE - Lichtschranken

Microgate light barriers consist of two gates. The system can be used to perform exact time measurements (accuracy: ± 0.4 thousandths of a second) such as measuring sprint speed. The system can be used in mobile applications.

Important: The photocells and the timer must not be located further than 150cm away.

